

CODE OF ETHICS

BLDG of Cave City

The members of BLDG have a very straightforward, but important mission: “to continually provide our members with quality services and support that produces the wellbeing and economic growth for our businesses and community.”

BLDG does not condone bullying and harassment and encourages members who have been victims or witnesses to bullying, discrimination, or harassment to come forward.

In order to achieve our mission, we will conduct our business with the following Code of Ethics in mind:

- Obey the law
- Take care of our members
- Take care of our community
- Respect our guidelines
- Competing fairly
- Making the right decision
- Act with integrity
- Being yourself and treating each other well
- Giving back
- Be honest and trustworthy
- Be fair and take action not to discriminate
- Honor confidentiality
- Work together to get the groups goals accomplished

*Not complying with the BLDG Code of Conduct can result in dismissal and / or refusal of membership.
